James A. Taylor Scholarship Application For Online Graduate Economics Courses

In conjunction with our sponsoring organizations, Center for International Business Education and Research (CIBER) and Proctor & Gamble Paper Products Company, Economics Wisconsin offers partial tuition reimbursement to Wisconsin teachers through James A. Taylor Scholarships. These scholarships are intended for current Wisconsin teachers who have enrolled in an online graduate course offered through our Center for Economic Education at UW Oshkosh. You must submit a separate registration form to the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh Center for Economic Education. This form is used for scholarship purposes only. In most cases, applicants will be notified of application status within one to five business days of receipt of this application. Notification will be made via email only, so please be sure to provide a valid email address.

Scholarship Availability:

- You must currently be teaching in Wisconsin
- Scholarships are limited to $150 per credit with a maximum of $150 per student, per semester.
- Scholarships are subject to the availability of funds and will be awarded to those who qualify on a first-come, first-served basis determined by the date the application is received by Economics Wisconsin.
